

Sexual Harassment of Students

Introduction:

The Board of Education prohibits the sexual harassment, gender discrimination and discrimination based upon actual or perceived sexual orientation of students by other students, employees, officers, volunteers, business invitees and district contractor employees. ~~will not permit, condone, or tolerate sexual harassment, discrimination based upon actual or perceived sexual orientation and gender discrimination of its students.~~ Sexual harassment is a violation of law and stands in direct opposition to District policy. This policy prohibits sexual harassment and discrimination based upon the actual or perceived sexual orientation of a student, as well as, gender discrimination intended to demean or intimidate a person or persons because of his or her gender. ~~These prohibitions against the sexual harassment of students apply to the conduct of students, employees, officers, volunteers, business invitees and district contractor employees.~~

The Board of Education requires the relationship between students, employees, officers, volunteers, business invitees and district contractor employees to be based upon mutual respect and professionalism. All adults are expected to exercise good judgment and maintain professional boundaries when interacting with students and each other, in all curricular and extra-curricular activities, both on and off school property.

Definitions:

1. Sexual harassment is defined as conduct~~ctet~~ directed against a person of a different or same sex, because of his or her sex or actual or perceived sexual orientation, which creates a sexually hostile learning or school environment.
2. Sexual harassment that creates a hostile learning or school environment is either pervasive and/or one or more incidents of severe conduct that involves unwelcome: sexual advances; sexual violence¹; sexual conduct that constitutes a crime; sexual touching; indecent exposure of a sexual nature; sexual remarks, comments, displayed materials, printed materials, electronic media or jokes. Pervasive and/or one or more incidents of sexual conduct directed at any student by an officer, employee, volunteer, business invitee or district contractor employee shall be deemed to be unwelcome per se. Pervasive and/or one or more incidents of severe sexual conduct directed at students in grades K-8 by any other student shall be deemed to be unwelcome per se. The determination of a hostile learning or school environment, in cases other than those deemed per se unwelcome (including students in grades 9-12), shall be objective, based upon the viewpoint of a reasonable person and subjectively perceived to be so by the complainant and shall be done on a case by case basis.

¹ Prohibited sexual violence refers to physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or where the person is incapable of giving consent due to the person's use of drugs or alcohol or an individual's intellectual or other disability.

Alternates

The Board shall appoint more than one Title IX Officer. The Complainant will have a choice of which Title IX Officer to approach regarding a Title IX Complaint. Should the complaint be about a District administrator, the Superintendent of Schools shall review and investigate the complaint. If the complaint is about the Superintendent of Schools, the Board of Education shall conduct all review and investigation activities.

All investigations shall be conducted promptly and in such a manner as to ensure confidentiality to the maximum extent permissible and that the complainant and/or any witness is not embarrassed or subjected to retaliation. The Title IX Officer shall explain to the complaining the student the right to be free from retaliation or retribution and that confidentiality shall be maintained throughout the process by all involved, except as necessary to assure fair and due process.

The Title IX Officer shall conduct an intake interview and explain the following various options to the alleged victims for resolution.:

- Registering an informal complaint verbally or in writing; or
- Registering a formal complaint verbally or in writing; or
- Engaging in voluntary staff facilitated mediation to arrive at a resolution of the matter (this shall not be utilized when allegations involve sexual assault or sexual violence or the conduct of an adult); or
- Placing the District on notice of the objectionable conduct without seeking a resolutions through the complaint process or mediation.

If the District's investigation supports the complaint, immediate and corrective action shall be taken. Should the offending individual be a school employee, appropriate disciplinary measures shall be applied, up to and including termination of the offender's employment in accordance with contractual and legal guidelines. Should the offending individual be a student, appropriate disciplinary measures shall be applied, up to and including suspension/expulsion pursuant to the District's Student Code of Conduct.

The Board prohibits any retaliatory behavior directed against the complainant and/or witnesses. Follow-up inquiries by the Principal or Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources and Leadership Development shall be made to ensure that the harassment or discrimination based
