

Horace Greeley Trip to China April 2014

May 28, 2014

Attendees

Students

Serafino Bueti
Olivia Carlen
Dylan Forest
J. Michael Jbara
Emily Kerstein
Andrew Magnotte

Rebecca Marano
Chloe Noto
Casey Parham
Erika Swinney
Noah Truwit
Lauren Urena-Clark

Teachers

Josh Block
Maureen Callan
Michele Glenn
Ping Li

The People

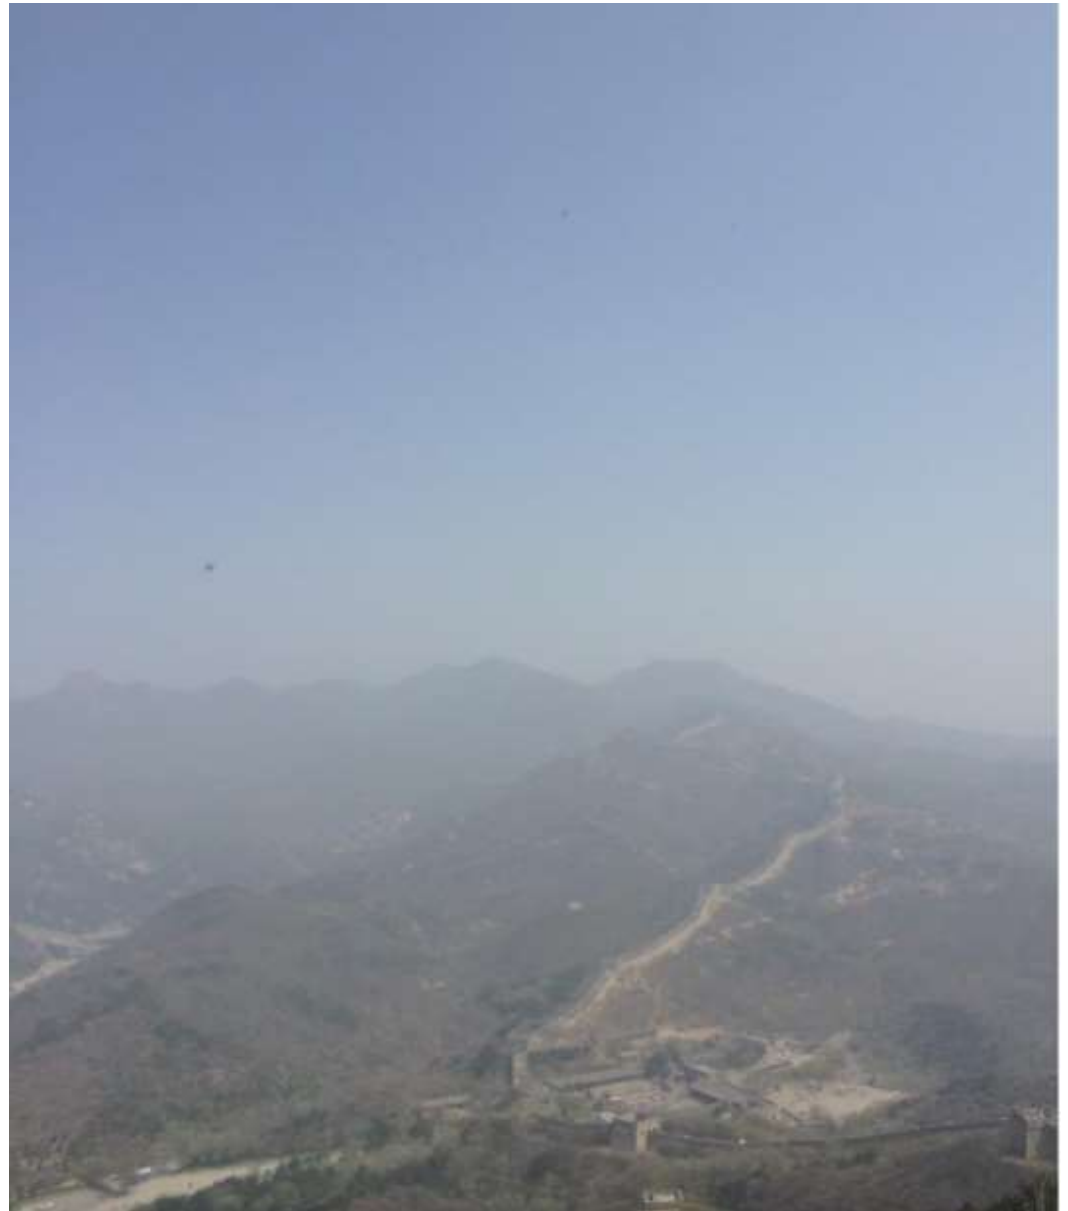

- Bargaining
- Celebrity status

The homestay was amazing!

- History gives new perspective of world
- Environmental issues

- Learning from first hand experience
- Similarity
- How the people act

- The opportunity
- The kids
- The food

In China, meals are seen as a time to unwind and enjoy; while in America meals are often valued for convenience, since we have “better things to do.”

- Buddhism and Taoism
- Secular Country
- Western curriculum vs. Eastern

The architecture was beautiful

Experiences outside of the schools were also very beneficial and educational

Experiencing things for myself

- Not textbook
- Learning culture through living it

Randomness: you never know what is going to happen next. It keeps you on your toes and ready for anything.

Thank You